DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND AGRICULTURE.

No. G. 7097—G. M. 69-13-48, dated 5th March 1914.

Under para 1 (iv) of Government Order No. G. 7045-96—G. M. 69-13-47, dated 5th March 1914, Government are pleased to issue the following rules for the election of eight non-official members to the Mysore Economic Conference by the District electorates :—

The following electorate will be constituted for choosing the members:—

(1) Persons qualified to elect members of the Dasara Representative Assembly for a taluk under the rules regarding the constitution of the Dasara Representative Assembly.

(2) Non-official members of Regulation and Non-Regulation Municipalities.

(3) Non-official members of District and Taluk Boards.

(4) Delegates of recognized Public Associations which contain at least 100 members who are not Government servants.

(5) Delegates of recognized Trade Associations, Chambers of Commerce, etc.

(6) Delegates of Co-operative Societies.

In the case of the institutions referred to in clauses (4), (5) and (6), the number of delegates entitled to vote will in each case be fixed by Government, from time to time, on receipt of an application for recognition.

All persons, other than Government servants, permanently residing in a district who are actively engaged in agriculture, trade or industrial pursuits or who are interested in education shall be eligible for election after their candidature is approved by Government. Intending candidates should notify their names to the Deputy Commissioner of the District within a date to be fixed, on a prescribed printed form (attached) which may be obtained from all Taluk or District Offices. The applications will be considered by Government and the names of all approved candidates will be notified in the Gazette.

The electors in each taluk will meet at the taluk headquarters on a date to be fixed and will record their votes in favor of one or other of the candidates in the list published as prescribed above.

A person qualified under clause (1), (2) or (3) will have only one vote, even if he is qualified under more than one of those clauses.

A delegate under clause (4), (5) or (6) will have a vote in respect of each association or society of which he is a delegate apart from his vote in respect of his personal qualification under clauses (1), (2) and (3).

The votes recorded in all the taluks will be tabulated by the Deputy Commissioner and the consolidated result reported to Government.
